

Parent Night: Jan 24 Cybersafe from Exploitation

Come learn about all forms of sexual exploitation, the current trends, warning signs, and how they are specifically affecting students of the Richmond school district. This presentation will provide engaging and relevant information through games and activities.

What is exploitation?

Most often referred to as "sexual exploitation", it involves a minor exchanging a sexual act for something in return. In Canada, this is illegal but never the fault of the minor. With over 90% being facilitated online, sexual exploitation is affecting teens of all backgrounds and genders.

Forms of digital sexual exploitation

- Pressures into sexting
- Sending nudes online
- Digital blackmail into sextortion
- Online grooming by predators
- Making money off of sexual posts

Presented by
Tiana Sharifi, Founder
Sexual Exploitation Education

Date
January 24th
Location
Richmond High
Time
7pm