NEWS FROM THE WOLF PACK

Dear Families,

Next week is our second Spirit Week at Whiteside. Every day will be an opportunity to dress up in something new and fun, during the last week of school before Winter Break. The class with the most students dressed up will receive a prize! Transitional Learners who have dressed up can email their pictures to whiteside@sd38.bc.ca.

For those students whose teachers are using the traditional reporting option (3 terms, summative report cards), reports will be going home on Thursday, December 17th. If your child is at home, doing Transitional Learning, you may stop by the school to pick it up on Friday, December 18th. Please avoid drop-off and pick-up times. Parents with children using portfolios, you are reminded to look in those portfolios on the 17th to see teachers' comments on the work submitted. The summative report for these students will be ready for viewing later in the new year.

We are excited to be holding a holiday concert Zoombly (Zoom + assembly) on Friday, December 18th. More information on how to access this concert to come.

Have a good weekend!
