NEWS FROM THE WOLF PACK

Dear Families,

It has been an amazing, fun-filled Spirit Week here at Whiteside! Wacky hair, denim, warm/ugly sweaters, and holiday accessories were worn by students and staff to show their holiday spirit. We were not disappointed, as classes (including teachers with some very creative outfits) worked hard to win their class a prize. Tomorrow, pajama day, will finish the week off as we all head into a well anticipated break.

For those students whose teachers are using the traditional reporting option, report cards will be going home today. If possible, please sign and return the envelopes tomorrow. If your child is at home, doing Transitional Learning, you may stop by the school to pick them up tomorrow, December 18th. Please avoid drop-off and pick-up times. Parents with children using portfolios, you are reminded to look in those portfolios to see teachers' comments on the work submitted. The summative report for these students will be ready for viewing later in the new year.

We are excited to be holding a holiday concert Zoombly (Zoom + assembly) on Friday, December 18th, to showcase some of the things that we have been doing this month and to spread some holiday cheer. If you want to view our livestream at 10 am, you can find our video link at: <https://youtu.be/oG9B1pWLSHM>

Have a good, safe, and healthy winter break! We will see you again on January 4th.
